Short Vlaha in the mountains, carries mint in her hair in the mountains of Vasilitsa
One apple and another apple, it is night and where will I stay Oh, love, what will come of me
I ask the neighbors, where is my love, where are the eyes I love Oh look at this hair, painted with karambolia
In the pines, in the streams, I kissed you but you won't tell it
I will leave and you will cry
